RICHARD W. WIEKING
CLERK, U.S. DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
OAKLAND

Pending C07-4469 CW(PR)

In lines 4-7 I intended C07-4286 CW(PR) to show the court my efforts to obtain my Direct Appeal and my Companion Writ from the Administrative Segregation Officer prior to my 7/19/07 filing deadline. I'd also sent verification of my medical condition and the prescribed narcotic medications I'd been taking. I sent this in hopes that the court would excuse my exceeding the 7/19/07 filing deadline. The Companion Writ (ground #7 I.A.C.) was previously exhausted on 7/19/06.

In regards to lines 13-16, I filed the Appeal (Improper Jury Instruction) using a State Habeas Form and I wrote FEDERAL APPEAL above Writ of Habeas Corpus. The court added this appeal as a supplement to C07-4469. (see attachment stamped Sept. 10/08)

The Attorney General only showed Cause on the Improper Jury Instruction?

I've sent a copy of the 8/7/07 letter I'd sent along with the writ application C074286 CW to inform the court of my efforts to obtain my property. I'd also filed an inmate grievance repeatedly, which the Inmate Appeals Staff at Menard Prison wouldn't accept. Can you please send me a current docket sheet? Thank You Jeff Hancock V-49474

I sent documents with this to indicate to the court
my attempts to obtain my Direct Appeal and Companion Writ from Administrative Segregation Property

Dear Clerk, Staff prior to my 7/19/07 filing deadline

9/6/07 I swear under penalty of perjury the above statement is true. Hancock

I was misinformed by my appellate attorney into the belief that I had at least 90 days after I received the California Supreme Court's denial of my writ before I would exceed my filing deadline in the federal district court. * Please see advisement, on page marked #1, 2nd paragraph. I'm ready to proceed with my exhausted claim or claims. I received my Calif. Supreme Court denials for cases S150880 on 8/2/07 and S151947 on 7/31/07, Both stating (See In re Clark 5 Cal. 4th 75.
I was transferred from Calif. Mens Colony to Arapa State Prison on 6/13/07. I've been housed in Administrative Segregation since my arrival. I'm not supposed to be housed at this prison due to my medical condition.

I've been taking prescribed narcotic pain medication for my disability since March of 2005. I've been unable to go to the Law Library since my arrival. I requested a writ application from your office in July. As soon as I can obtain an application I will file in the Northern District Court. Hopefully, I'm not too late. Please review the initialed pages.
Thanks for your time. Please see other exhibits.

Sincerely, Jeff Hancock

I didn't receive my property until 7/27/07.

On 6/13/07 I was transferred to Avenal State Prison in violation of Doctors orders. Upon my arrival I was left with the choice of a) violate Doctors orders and accept housing that would put me at greater risk to permanent paralysis or b) be housed in Administrative Segregation pending a hearing on the matter. I chose Segregation. In 2006 I'd been housed on a prison yard identical to these in violation of the same medical chrono. I was attacked from behind while on my knees getting something from my locker. I suffered a Great Bodily Injury. I thought I'd only be in Administrative Segregation a short time until the I.C.C. Hearing in which a decision would be made to transfer me to a facility that coincides with my medical condition and chrono. After 30 days here I requested my property, which contains all of my pending legal material along with information. I help from station 7/13/07. On 7/17/07 the same Property Officer came to my cell and said, "I can't find your property." I said "I've been inside this building since my arrival. I saw my property inside the Receiving and Release building the day I arrived." The officer never brought my property. I filed an inmate appeal (see initialed copies). On 7/27/07 another officer finally did bring me my property. Thanks for your time, [Signature]

This was my Appeal in State Court which was attached 1/15/08 as a supplement to my already pending writ

I guess I used the wrong form to file the appeal?

When and Where to File

You should file in the Northern District if you were convicted and sentenced in one of these counties: Alameda, Contra Costa, Del Norte, Humboldt, Lake, Marin, Mendocino, Monterey, Napa, San Benito, Santa Clara, Santa Cruz, San Francisco, San Mateo and Sonoma. You should also file in this district if you are challenging the manner in which your sentence is being executed, such as loss of good time credits, and you are confined in one of these counties. Habeas L.R. 2254-3(a).

If you are challenging your conviction or sentence and you were not convicted and sentenced in one of the above-named fifteen counties, your petition will likely be transferred to the United States District Court for the district in which the state court that convicted and sentenced you is located. If you are challenging the execution of your sentence and you are not in prison in one of these counties, your

The Attorney General was ordered to respond to the Eight grounds in CO7-4469 and only showed cause on the Improper Jury Instruction ground?

Concerning the order of 1/15/08

On 9/10/07 I filed an appeal using a federal habeas corpus application. On the 1st page I crossed out 'Habeas Corpus' and above it wrote Federal Appeal. The appeal concerned improper jury instructions. When I appealed my criminal conviction in state court my appellate attorney attached a companion habeas corpus as well. I sent case # C07-4286CW(PR) to try and convince the court of governmental interference on the part of correctional staff with regards to my obtaining my writ and appeal from my property which they (CPCR staff) possessed. I was hoping the court would consider this in light of excusing any procedural default on my part. So, I just wanted to let you know that case # C07-4664CW(PR) was my appeal. I've never done this before so I guess the consolidation of petitions is a good thing. Thanks for your consideration

Jeff Hancock

Note (I now realize I'd filed C074286 using a State Habeas Application)
I sent this letter from Avenal State Prison, Administrative Segregation Unit. It should have been postmarked 1/25/08. I've noticed the court received a letter 2/4/08 in case C07-4469CW, per the docket sheet. Between Oct. '07 and Feb. '08 I've alleged the theft of my outgoing legal mail by Avenal Staff, grievance pending.
